Quality Replacement Parts You Can Rely On

Robertshaw Controls Company is the world's No. 1 manufacturer of replacement appliance controls. Manufacturers of leading appliance brands, as well as appliance repair contractors, rely on Robertshaw for parts that meet the exacting quality standards of the original equipment. Our unique combination of design, testing and manufacturing capabilities—including an agency-certified in-house lab and a global footprint of three engineering innovation centers, 12 manufacturing plants and three distribution centers in 13 countries—has earned us a reputation for consistent quality and responsive service among our valued customers.

You'll find a wide selection of controls for cooking, dishwashing, laundry and refrigeration appliances, along with the corresponding OEM parts they replace, in this guide. Contact us with technical questions or to place orders:
